Date: Saturday, March 14th 2009

Program: DESERT SONG YOGA PRESENTS "TODDLER & PARENT YOGA"

Time: 9am – 10am

Description: Introduce your young child to the countless benefits of yoga in this specially designed class that uses games, music, stories and play to explore postures, balance and breath. Quality time with a parent is an added bonus! Class is designed for children ages 18 months through three years and is taught by Carrie Klein (CYI, RYT) from Desert Song Yoga & Massage Center.

Program: DESERT SONG YOGA PRESENTS "KIDS YOGA"

Time: 10am – 11am

Description: Designed for children ages four through ten, Kids gain improved focus, balance, breath, strength & confidence through yoga, as they practice with music, stories, obstacle courses, partner poses and creative play. Parents are welcome to participate.

Date: Saturday, March 21st 2009

Program: WILDLIFE WORLD ZOO

Time: 10am – 11am

Description: Wildlife World Zoo will bring animals from their Adaptations Program and explain the different specialized body parts that animals have to help them survive in their environments. This will be a 30-40 minute presentation followed by a question/answer session.

Date: Tuesday, March 24th 2009

Program: COWBOY GARY

Time: 10am – 11am

Description: Accompanied by his trusty horse "Dusty" or his original partner "Steel", "Cowboy Gary" uses sing-a-long songs and a fun filled presentation to show children why each piece of cowboy clothing is perfect for cowboy work. Student volunteers get to come up and help with demonstrations. Songs both traditional and original make this a joyous occasion. The second half of the presentation begins with one of his equine buddies entering and bowing to the crowd. The newfound ranch hands learn how to care for a horse and make it their friend. Then they learn how to put all of the gear onto their steed and why each part is perfect for cowboy work.
